

Event presented by the Wien Center for Alzheimer's Disease and Memory Disorders, Mount Sinai Medical Center, Miami Beach, Florida, and 1Florida ADRC

Event graciously underwritten by Marilyn and the late Myers Girsh

This event is intended for the public at large, including individuals at-risk for Alzheimer's disease, their family members, as well as professionals from various fields who may be interested in an up-to-date review of some aspects of Alzheimer's disease research.

The forum will allow the audience to interact with top scientists in the field in the presence of a moderator.

Review video recordings of the Public Educational Forum's past editions at www.mcisymposium.org.
